McGhee-Locke.

A very pretty wedding was witnessed Wednesday evening by a few intimate friends and relatives of the families, at the home of Mrs. Nannie Hill McGhee, 215 Eighth avenue, northwest, when her daughter, Augusta Hill, became the wife of Mr. Raymond Preston Locke of Oklahoma City.

The reception rooms of the home were beautifully decorated with ferns, palms and white roses. The dining room was unusually attractive. A huge bowl filled with white rosebuds, centered the table, with delicate traceries of ferns surrounding. The electrolitters were artistically draped with trailing vines and white roses. The archway between the dining room and living room was gracefully festooned with angelopsis. An improvised altar of ferns and palms in the living room formed the background for the bridal party.

The bride and groom entered to the soft strains of Lohengrin's march, played by Mrs. F. W. Howes, and were met at the altar by the Reverend F. W. Howes who read the Episcopal service in an impressive manner. During the ceremony Mrs. Howes played "O Perfect Love." After the betrothal she played the joyous strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride wore a handsome Russian green tulle and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies.

A delicious salad course was served after the congratulations had been received.

Mr. and Mrs. Locke left on the noon train.

I suffered with kidney and bladder trouble, but two months treatment with Peru-na made me a well and strong man. My wife felt weak and was easily tired and was also troubled with various pains, but since she took Peru-na she is well and strong."

DANDRUFF AND FALLING HAIR

Scalp Itched. Dandruff Scaled Off. Showed in Hair and Covered Coat Collar. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Hair Stopped Coming Out and Scalp Clean.

Byron, Ga.—"For six years or more I have been troubled with dandruff and falling hair. My scalp would itch so that some times I would be compelled to scratch even in company and I was losing my hair very fast. The dandruff would scale off and show in my hair and when I would comb it the dandruff would almost cover my coat around the collar.

I used different kinds of hair tonics and skin soaps but none seemed to do very much good. I was advised by a friend to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment, which I did, and now my hair has stopped coming out and my scalp is clean of dandruff. My hair is thick as it ever was. I also had pimples and blackheads on my face but Cuticura Soap and Ointment has healed them." (Signed) Curtis Sullivan, July 31, 1914.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY COUNCIL M. E. CHURCH SOUTH

The Congress of Missions.

The congress of missions, held in San Francisco in June, represented nearly all the home and foreign missionary societies of the Protestant churches of this country. The enrolled delegation was over two thousand. The program, consisting of mission study, methods, and addresses, was excellent. One day the meeting was held on the exposition grounds, and a large audience gathered in Festival Hall. After the program they marched to the great religious exhibit in the Palace of Education and then to the California building for lunch.

Those in attendance were heard again and again to say: "Behold what God hath wrought!" What would the pioneers have said had they been present? A goodly number of members of our missionary societies on the coast attended the meetings. Two workers from the council were present and took part in the program—Miss Mabel Head and Miss Estelle Haskin.

Home-Coming.

Quite a party of missionaries reach the home land for furlough in July and August: Miss Mary Minor Tarrant, from Soochow; Miss Sallie J. Smith, from Huchow; Miss May Hixson, from Shanghai; Miss Bertha Smith and Miss Alice Dean Noyes, from Wonsan; Miss Mary Pesend, from Rio; and Miss Virginia Howell, from Piracicaba. Misses Otis and Martin, who retire from our work this year, came home in July. They are a great loss to our work, but we wish them happiness.

A New Missionary.

At the council meeting two women were asked to pray for the two nurses who were needed for Korea. One of them has answered the call and been accepted—Miss Rosa May Lowder, who has served as nurse in the Louisville Wesley House for two years past. She is taking a post-graduate course in Johns Hopkins University.

SCRIPTURE

PROVERBS 22:1-7.
A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

The rich and poor meet together; the Lord is the maker of them all. A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

By humility and the fear of the Lord are riches, and honour, and life. Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward; he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.

Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

Drink pure distilled water, delivered anywhere in city. Phone orders to 615.

General Scott seems to have been the kind of a man Villa has been destined to meet all along.
